Careers with STEM: Technology - extra copies for FREE!

Careers with STEM: Technology will be landing in mid-October 2021. Four copies will automatically be delivered to every Australian and New Zealand secondary and combined school.

Want more copies?

Wouldn't it be great if you could give more students a copy of Careers with STEM: Technology to take home, share with their parents and refer back to for career inspo again and again?

Thanks to the support of the issue's sponsor, Google Australia, secondary schools can pre-order extra copies - up to 100 extra copies per school! Just complete your details below. Note, these copies are for secondary schools in Australia and New Zealand only, so make sure you use a school-linked email address and include your school's name to be eligible.

Orders close Friday 24 September 2021 @ 5pm AEST.
